

Biography

Rolihlahla Mandela was born into the Madiba clan in the village of Mvezo, in the Eastern Cape, on 18 July 1918.

Nelson Mandela was a South African anti-apartheid revolutionary and the first democratically elected president of South Africa. He spent 27 years in prison for opposing racial segregation and became a symbol of courage, forgiveness, and reconciliation. Mandela's leadership emphasized unity, equality, and human rights, earning him the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993.

Value: Forgiveness and Unity

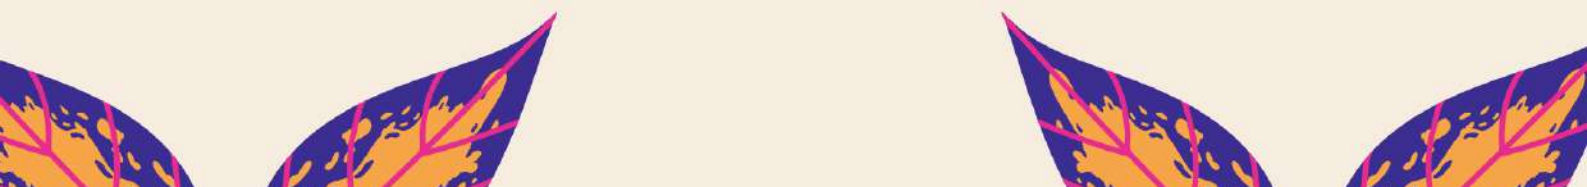

Biography

Ellen Eugenia Johnson Sirleaf (born 29 October 1938) is a Liberian politician who served as the 24th president of Liberia from 2006 to 2018. Sirleaf was the first elected female head of state in Africa.

Ellen Johnson Sirleaf is a Liberian politician and the first elected female president in Africa. Known as the “Iron Lady of Africa,” she led efforts to rebuild Liberia after years of civil war and worked to empower women in leadership. Her dedication to good governance and democracy earned her the Nobel Peace Prize in 2011

Value: Empowerment and Integrity

Biography

Fred McFeely Rogers (March 20, 1928 – February 27, 2003), better known as Mister Rogers, was born in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. Rogers earned a bachelor's degree in music from Rollins College in 1951.

He began his television career at NBC in New York City.

Fred Rogers was an American television host, educator, and advocate for children's emotional well-being. Through his program Mister Rogers' Neighborhood, he taught kindness, empathy, and self-worth to generations of children. His leadership showed that gentle compassion can make a lasting difference.

Value: Kindness and Empathy

Leaders Across the World

Martin Luther King Jr

Martin Luther King Jr. was a minister, activist, and one of the most influential leaders of the American Civil Rights Movement. He dedicated his life to promoting equality, justice, and nonviolent resistance. Through powerful speeches, marches, and advocacy, King challenged racial segregation and inspired millions to believe in the power of peaceful change. His leadership continues to guide movements for social justice across the world.

Value: Justice and Nonviolence

Characteristics of A Leader

- Integrity – doing the right thing even when it's hard
- Empathy – understanding and valuing others
- Communication – expressing ideas clearly and listening well
- Responsibility – being dependable and accountable
- Vision – seeing possibilities and guiding others toward them
- Adaptability – staying flexible and calm during change
- Confidence – believing in your abilities while staying humble
- Teamwork – working cooperatively and appreciating others' strengths
- Problem-Solving – finding solutions with creativity and patience
- Service – helping others and giving back to the community

BIOGRAPHY

Anna Eleanor Roosevelt (October 11, 1884 – November 7, 1962). She attended Allenswood Boarding Academy in London. Roosevelt was, in her time, one of the world's most widely admired and powerful women

Eleanor Roosevelt was an American diplomat, humanitarian, and former First Lady of the United States.

She championed human rights and was a driving force behind the creation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights at the United Nations. Through her leadership and advocacy, she encouraged fairness, empathy, and global cooperation.

Value: Compassion and Human Rights

Leaders Across The World

This display highlights influential leaders from around the world who have inspired change through courage, service, and integrity. Each leader is featured with a short biography and the core values they represent, showing how leadership can take many forms and grow from different cultural experiences. As you explore the leadership wall, take a moment to reflect on how these values show up in your own life and community.

Leadership is not only about position, it is about choice, character, and everyday actions. We invite you to read, be inspired, and consider what leadership means to you.

Biography

Barack Hussein Obama II was born August 4, 1961, in Honolulu, Hawaii, to parents Barack H. Obama, Sr., and Stanley Ann Dunham.

Obama graduated from Columbia University in 1983 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science and later worked as a community organizer in Chicago.

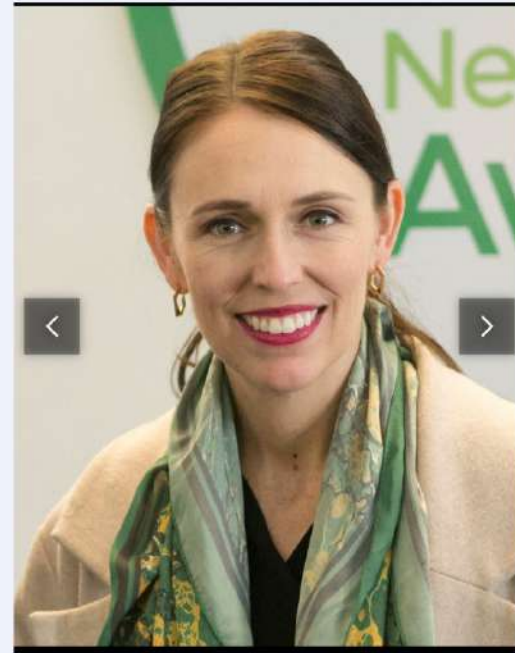

He served as the 44th President of the United States and is known for promoting hope, unity, and progress. Before his presidency, he worked as a community organizer helping neighborhoods overcome social and economic challenges. His leadership encourages people to believe that change begins within communities working together.

Value: Hope and Community
Empowerment

Biograpghy

Dame Jacinda Kate Laurell Ardern born 26 July 1980) is a New Zealand politician and activist who was the 40th prime minister of New Zealand. She was born and raised in Hamilton, Ardern grew up in Morrinsville and Murupara. She joined the New Zealand Labour Party at the age of 17.

Jacinda Ardern served as the Prime Minister of New Zealand and became known for her empathetic and inclusive style of leadership. She led the nation through crises with compassion and strength, emphasizing kindness and unity. Ardern's approach redefined modern political leadership through empathy and action.

Value: Empathy and Inclusivity

Biography

Mother Teresa was born Agnes Gonxha Bojaxhiu in Uskup, Ottoman Empire (now Skopje, North Macedonia), on August 26, 1910. Her family was of Albanian descent.

Mother Teresa, born in North Macedonia, was a Catholic nun and missionary who devoted her life to helping the poor and sick in India. She founded the Missionaries of Charity, which serves the most vulnerable worldwide. Her compassion and humility continue to inspire acts of kindness and service.

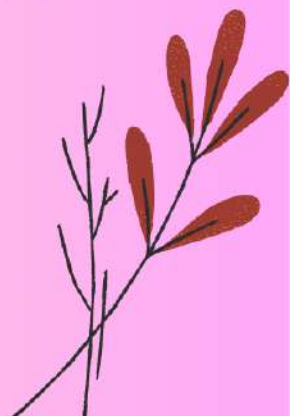

Value: Compassion and Service

Thought for the week

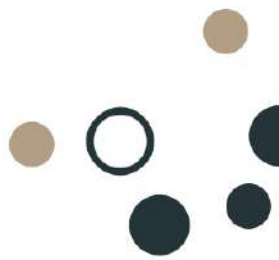

“The greatest leader is not necessarily the one who does the greatest things. He is the one that gets the people to do the greatest things.”

Ronald Reagan

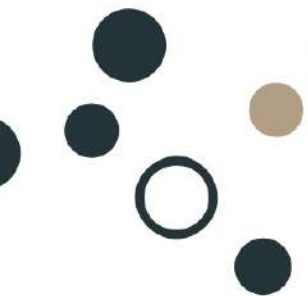

Quote of the week

Leaders aren't born, they are made.
And they are made just like anything
else—through hard work.

Vince Lombardi

Biography

Barack Hussein Obama II, born August 17, 1961, in Honolulu, Hawaii, is the 44th President of the United States. He is the first African American to hold the office. Before his presidency, he served as the 26th Governor of Illinois from 2003 to 2007. He is married to Michelle Obama and has two daughters, Malia and Sasha.

He served as the 44th President of the United States and is known for his inspiring leadership and his role in the passage of the Affordable Care Act. He is a member of the Democratic Party and is the first African American to hold the office of President of the United States.

Values: Honor and Community

Biography

She is a woman of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in her life. She is a leader in her field and has inspired many others to follow in her footsteps. She is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Biography

He is a man of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in his life. He is a leader in his field and has inspired many others to follow in his footsteps. He is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Biography

She is a woman of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in her life. She is a leader in her field and has inspired many others to follow in her footsteps. She is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Biography

She is a woman of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in her life. She is a leader in her field and has inspired many others to follow in her footsteps. She is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Leaders Across The World

This display highlights influential leaders from around the world who have inspired change through their vision, courage, and integrity. Each leader is featured with a short biography and a quote that reflects their leadership style. These leaders have shown us that with the right vision and the courage to act, we can make a difference in the world.

Biography

She is a woman of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in her life. She is a leader in her field and has inspired many others to follow in her footsteps. She is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Biography

He is a man of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in his life. He is a leader in his field and has inspired many others to follow in his footsteps. He is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Biography

She is a woman of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in her life. She is a leader in her field and has inspired many others to follow in her footsteps. She is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Leadership

Leadership is the ability to guide, inspire, and influence others toward a shared goal. It is not defined by titles but by actions taking initiative, making responsible choices, and helping people move forward. A leader creates positive change, supports others, and builds environments where everyone can succeed.

Biography

He is a man of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in his life. He is a leader in his field and has inspired many others to follow in his footsteps. He is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

Biography

She is a woman of many talents and has achieved many accomplishments in her life. She is a leader in her field and has inspired many others to follow in her footsteps. She is a role model for everyone and is a true inspiration.

What Does Leadership Look Like?

Leadership is not a title or a position. It is a set of behaviors and actions that inspire and motivate others to achieve a common goal. Leadership is about taking responsibility, making decisions, and inspiring others to follow. Leadership is about being a role model and a source of inspiration for others.

Characteristics of A Leader

- Integrity - being the same person inside and out
- Trustworthiness - being reliable and keeping promises
- Communication - listening and speaking clearly
- Empathy - understanding and caring for others
- Resilience - being able to bounce back from setbacks
- Humility - being able to admit mistakes and learn from them
- Confidence - believing in your abilities and the abilities of others
- Teamwork - working well with others and supporting them
- Problem Solving - finding solutions to problems
- Service - helping others and giving back to the community